About

- Stuart has 35 years experience in education. As Director of Education for the Diocese of Liverpool since March 2020, he currently has overall responsibility for the promotion of education across the Diocese that is consistent with the faith and practice of the Church of England; an education that makes a positive difference to the lives of children and young people in the region.
- He has oversight of 118 Church of England schools and academies which educate in excess of 35,000 children and young people, across 8 local authority areas. He is responsible for the Diocesan Board of Education's MAT strategy and for delivering the Board's strategic priorities. As DDE, Stuart is a member of all the Church of England Multi academy Trusts in the Diocese.
- He has been a Governor, a Chair of Governors and a Chair of Directors and is committed to promoting education that gives all those in our schools and academies the opportunity to flourish.
